TET Celebration 2023

January 13, 2023 was an auspicious day here at SIS@Vung Tau. For the first time in what seemed like ages, we were able to have a proper Tet Holiday Celebration here on campus. The morning started with all of the classes doing some Art related activities for Tet. The KIK students decorated their Red Packets in their classrooms. Year 1-IGCSE 2 students painted on Nón lá and decorated their fruit trays either in their classrooms or in the courtyard of the

Perhaps the best part of the celebration was that we were able to invite our parents to come and watch their children perform in the hall to help celebrate the wonderful day. The parents seemed to really enjoy the performances and were even able to watch the teachers play music and dance as well. We look forward to more activities such as these as we move forward through the school year.

Year 7L Science Experiment

Year 7 International students engaged in an active experiment outside the classroom to help see how matter changes shape, and the speed at which it does this. We performed the old classic experiment of combining Mento's and Coke, which demonstrates carbon dioxide's release from its liquid state. We learned a lot and of course had a great deal of fun in the process

First SIS@Vung Tau School-Wide Beach Clean Up!

As you may well know, SIS@Vung Tau has some well-defined School Wide Learner Goals. One of these goals is to create Responsible Citizens, under this heading comes 'I Look for ways to be helpful.' To us this means we intend for our students to be active members of our community, not passive. What better way to do that than to teach by doing, thus the Beach Clean-up was born!

Apparently, this initiative was well over due as the turnout from our dedicated SIS community was enormous. We had just under 70 students, well over 20 members of staff and a countless number of parents, friends and family all attending and volunteering their free time to this worthy cause.

World Read Aloud Day

Every year World Read Aloud Day is celebrated by millions of people in over 170 countries worldwide. Students from all over the world are brought together to celebrate the unique impact of sharing stories.

Here at SIS@Vung Tau, we celebrated World Read Aloud Day on February 10th. Each class had unique ways of telling, writing, acting out and performing written stories and poems for their classmates and friends from other classes.

We even had some parents come to school to lend their reading talents to their children's classes. Mr. Leo's 2L class led a "Poetry Slam" that was enjoyed by many. Year 4G read Shel Silverstein's "The Giving Tree" together as a class and completed an Art project after the story. Some of the older children read to their younger schoolmates in other classes as well. Mr. Bill's 5L Class acted out parts of the Wizard of Oz, in costume.

Singapore International School Football Friendly

On the 7th of January SIS-Vung Tau hosted a friendly football tournament for our senior boy students. Schools that participated with us were Vo Truong Toan and Ngo Si Lien. The day was filled with great competition and good sportsmanship, and everybody from players to spectators had an engaging time. SIS Vung Tau made it all the way into the finals, but unfortunately lost 2-1. Nevertheless, our school's sporting ability was well displayed, and our competition and fighting spirit felt by the opposing schools. Well done boys.
